Religions have the golden rule in common. The golden rule is the principle of treating others as you want to be treated.

GOD IN ISLAM

The teaching of god complete oneness is the essence of islam. All other laws, beliefs and commands of islam are built on this foundation.

Allah as a personal name of god is a reflection of islam's emphasis on the purity of the belief in one god.

There is no god expect Allah and no one has the right to be worshipped but Allah.

Allah has no partners no rivals and no equals. There is the only one but one. If there were more than one god it would surely lead to confusio, disorder, chaos or destruction. And as we all see, the universe is in complete harmony.

Muslims have a direct connection with Allah without the need for any intermediaries because Allah hears all who praise.
